Dismiss Charge Against Woman

Upon the recommendation of Deputy District Attorney A. S. Whitmore the misdemeanor charge against Frances Lawrence (Ernestine Brundage) was dismissed by the Daly City court, Friday morning, July 14. She had been arrested in this city by State Narcotics agents and booked at the Daly City Police department. She appeared in person at Judge William J. By order of the court the defendant, Chan, was committed to the custody of the sheriff of the county. Upon the recommendation of the deputy district attorney, the misdemeanor charge against Chan was dropped.

The pair was arrested at a Daly City auto court, Sunday night, July 2.

At the Friday afternoon session of court, the case of William Van Gastelen, charged with burglary at 438 Winchester street, April 3, was heard before Judge Sweeney. Deputy District Attorney Whitmore appeared on behalf of the people. The defendant offered no evidence on his own behalf and

Action-Swept Film Now At Daly City

Riding out of the West we've always loved and thrilled to . . . from out of the action-swept and romantic stagecoach and covered wagon days . . . America's greatest legendary figure comes to the screen of the Daly City theatre tonight in 20th Century-Fox's spectacular Technicolor production, "Buffalo Bill."

Starring Joel McCrea, Maur n O'Hara and Linda Darnell, i given a production such as o y the makers of the unforgettably thrilling "Jesse James" and "Western Union" could provide, "Buffalo Bill" towers above all others as the mightiest adventure film the screen has ever known.

For years, the colorful, thrilling story of "Buffalo Bill" Cody's life has challenged filmdom. Today, invested with timeless legend, countless thrills, exciting romance, a great cast and magnificent production, and a story as incomparable as the frontiersman hero himself, "Buffalo Bill" is on the screen with bigness, scope and brilliance.

Here indeed is the figure of a man to conjure with, to fill the screen with roaring adventure and tempestuous passions. In all the thrilling West no person lived so excitingly, no pioneer rode as adventurously as did he. Under the spirited direction of William A. Wellman, the film mounts to a thousand thrilling climaxes: the Cheyennes on the warpath; the greatest Indian battles ever filmed; the hand-to-hand death fight of Buffalo Bill and Yellow Hand; the spectacular buffalo hunt; the strange torture ritual of the Indian Sun Dance; the revenge for Custer's last stand, and many others.

Yet for all its brilliant spectacle and action, "Buffalo Bill" holds one of the strangest a n d most enchanting romances ever known. For even as the nation cheered him and moved westward, even as his exploits were shaping a newer and greater America, he was torn between the love of two women as far apart as the poles. And while he was winning the heart of the nation he served, he lost the love of the woman he adored only to have her return to him when he needed her most.

In the title role, Joel McCrea achieves the full promise of acting greatness all his previous roles have presaged. His performance is the outstanding triumph of his career. Maureen O'Hara as Louisa Cody is nothing short of superb. She plays the part with a fire and warmth that easily marks it as her greatest portrayal. Linda Darnell in the role of Dawn Starlight, the beautiful Indian girl who loved Buffalo Bill above all else, gives a thrilling and unforgettable performance.

Thomas Mitchell as the newspaper man who made Buffalo Bill a national figure; Edgar Buchanan as Sergeant Chips; and Anthony Quinn as Yellow Hand, give outstanding performances as do Moroni Olsen, Frank Fenton, Matt Briggs, George Lessey and Frank Orth.

Harry A. Sherman has produced "Buffalo Bill" in glorious Technicolor of beauty and brilliance.

Now At Daly City Theatre

Maureen O'Hara, Joel McCrea and Linda Darnell form the romantic triangle in "Buffalo Bill," 20th Century-Fox's thrill-swept Technicolor hit which opens tonight at the Daly City theatre. The colorful and exciting saga of the life of Ame ica's greatest frontiersman hero features Thomas Mitchell, Edgar Bu chanan and Anthony Quinn in its brilliant cast. "Buffalo Bill" was directed by William A. Wellman and produced by Harry A. Sherman.

OPA Says Landlords Bound By Rental Ceilings

Landlords buying property which they subsequently rent, are bound by the rental ceilings previously established, Henry A. Cross, District Rent Executive of the Office of Price Administration stated today.

According to Cross, an erroneous report is circulating that a new property owner, by occupying the purchases himself for a few months and then renting it, may establish his own ceiling price. This he may not do, Cross said.

The previous legal maximum rent as registered with OPA still governs and any charge above it is a violation of federal regulations, Cross declared.

Army Powder Plant Proves Pretty Safe Place

Safety records in powder plants employing women workers improve in proportion to the number of such employees, declares Colonel T. C. Gerber, Army Ordinance director of Safety in Chicago.

"I am not prepared to say this fact is directly attributable to the employment of women but it is statistically true," says Colonel Gerber.

"Figures prove, too, that a woman worker is far safer in an Army powder plant than she is in her own home. The only industry safer to work in than Army ordnance explosive plant is the women's garment industry."

HOME TOWN DISCOVERY?

Four or five years ago when gasoline and rubber tires were as easy to buy as a loaf of bread, we thought nothing of jumping into the family car and driving a 20 or 30 mile roundtrip for shopping or entertainment.

Pearl Harbor changed that.

But since our travels have been limited we have discovered a good many things right in our own community that we once went miles to get. Our local explorations have revealed that the home town shops are well equipped to satisfy our needs.

Snice World War I the forward strides in mass production and multiple-unit distribution have broken through the one-time isolation of smaller communities. Today their stores can compete on even terms with metropolitan shops in bargains, in quality and in variety of stock.

Progressive independent and chain retailing has put the smaller town and city on the main lines of distribution, and is proving itself a real ally to these communities as the enforced decline in motor travel makes shopping at home a practical necessity as well as a patriotic duty.

Yes, we don't travel as much as we used to, but we have learned that our own pastures are just as green as the other fellow's.

GIVING YOUTH A SHARE

Tomorrow belongs to the youth of today. They will be the leaders of the post-war generation. If we are to have a better tomorrow we must give youth a greater share in today. As they are given increased opportunity to share in the problems now before us, they will be more able to cope with the tasks yet to come.

Fortunately, youth is being given that opportunity.

In the military field, young men are assuming important roles in the planning and directing of our battle for world freedom.

Two Brigadier Generals in the United States Army are under 30 years of age. Many high ranking officers have yet to reach 40. Even our top man—General Eisenhower—is young for such a responsible post.

In the business world, the contribution which young men and women can make is becoming more widely appreciated and utilized.

So, today youth is on the march both on the battle front and the home front. Their spontaneity, imagination and daring are being made more effective through the wisdom that is born of experience.

Their contributions to the present will help build a better future both for themselves and for the generations yet to come.

PEARL HARBOR TO SAIPAN

On the evening of December 7, 1941, a Japanese Vice-Admiral stood on the deck of his flagship somewhere in the Pacific west of the Hawaiian Islands. He was very happy. All day long reports had been coming in of the havoc and destruction wrought on the American fleet in Pearl Harbor by the planes from his task force in their infamous sneak attack.

The Admiral was satisfied that the American battle fleet in the Pacific had been knocked out for keeps. It would take many, many months, or even years, for the United States to restore its fighting strength. Before that time, Japanese forces would have taken Hawaii and moved on to attack the Pacific Coast. America was soft. It would quickly collapse.

If the happy Admiral had been told on that December day that just 31 months later he would be killed by American troops landing on Saipan island, it is quite likely that his flat face would have cracked into a broad, toothy grin and he would have said in the Japanese equivalent, "Quit kidding."

On December 7, 1941, the thought of an American fleet strong enough to attack and capture Saipan within the next three years or the next ten years bordered on the fringe of lunacy.

But fate has a way of doing preposterous things. In mid-July 1944, the capture of Saipan was history. So was the death of one Vice-Admiral Chuichi Nagumo, commander of the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor, who died for Hirohito and the defense of Saipan.

Could it be, however, that the Admiral was not killed by American guns but died of fright when he saw the "ghost" of the Pearl Harbor fleet rise out of the Pacific and stalk the man who "destroyed" it?

"The Merry Widow" Begins Final Week

The gay and lilting production of "The Merry Widow," starring Jan Kiepura, begins the third and final week of its engagement at the San Francisco Opera House, Monday night. This brilliant New Opera company's production which has come direct to San Francisco from its year's triumph in New York, has enjoyed a sensational success commensurate with the beauty, talent and skill evidenced in its conception and staging.

Under the direction of Felix Brentano this has been one of the most popular revivals of Lehar's famous and melodious musical roromance. The first operetta ever to play the Opera House, "The Merry Widow" features the noted comedian, Melville Cooper, surrounded by a bevy of lovely actresses, Wilma Spence as the Widow, Ruth Matteson as Natalie, and Lisette Vera as the gay Clo-Clo, included in the sparkling company of sixty.

Performance will be given nightly at the Opera House. Seats for this final week are on sale at the Opera box office and at the City of Paris.

Report On What State Paid Elementary Dist.

The state paid the Jefferson elementary school district $69,056 for 1943-44. State aid to the elementary district was based on an average daily attendance of 1,092 elementary pupils and on 35 teacher units, California Taxpayers' association stated today, making public the first of a series of factual studies of the financial condition of California's public schools.

State aid to each elementary school district at present consists of $1,570 per "teacher unit," which the law defines as thirty-five pupils in average daily attendance or fraction thereof, plus an extra dividend of $6.06 per child in average daily attendance throughout the state, plus a further extra dividend amounting to $4.96 per child in average daily attendance in San Mateo county elementary schools, plus sums not to exceed $100 per pupil for the excess cost of educating physically handicapped children, plus other extras, the association explained. Other expenditures of the district are financed from local property taxes.

Assn. Makes Public Revenues Analysis

Every cent of San Mateo county general tax rate costs the taxpayers of the county about $13,700, California Taxpayers' association stated today, making public its analysis of revenues from property taxes in California counties.

Based on the $136,889,109 assessed value of property in the county for 1943-44, every cent of rate amounted to $13,689 in property tax levy. Any change in the assessed value of property in the county for 1944-45 will, the association pointed out, increase or decrease the amount the county will receive from each cent of rate levied.

Total tax levy of $5,123,879 against property in the county for 1943-44 was made up of the cent and dollar rates levied by all the governmental units in the county, the association said. Receipts from the tax rates levied for the cities, school districts, and other taxing subdivisions in the county vary with the assessed value of the governmental unit.

HEALTH REPORT

In its health division bulletin for the week ending July 8, the San Mateo County Department of Public Health and Welfare tabulated the total communicable diseases reported in the county since January 1, 1944. There were 867 cases of chicken pox, 109 of German measles, 13 of gonorrhea, 292 of measles, 93 of scarlet fever, 56 of syphilis, and 56 of tuberculosis.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

Thomas Mann's latest novel, "Joseph the Provider," the July Book-of-the-Month Club selection, marks the end of a monumental undertaking by this celebrated author.

THOMAS MANN

Back in 1926, an artist in Munich, where Mann was then living, asked him to write an introduction to a portfolio of illustrations depicting the story of Joseph, the son of Jacob. He looked up the story in an old family Bible, and experienced what he describes as "an indescribable fascination" towards his subject. Subsequently Mann made archaeological excursions to Egypt and Palestine, revisiting the places where the story of Joseph is laid.

As a result of his researches and meditations, he wrote "Joseph and His Brothers," "Young Joseph," "Joseph in Egypt" and now the last of this great tetralogy, "Joseph the Provider."

"Joseph the Provider" begins when Joseph is a slave in the Pharaoh's palace, up until he becomes the ruler of economic life of Egypt, second only to the Pharaoh himself. Mr. Mann also retells here the biblical story of how Joseph's brothers came down into Egypt, and how Joseph finally revealed himself to them in one of the most famous recognition scenes in literature. "This is probably one of the lasting novels of our decade," says Dr. Henry Seidel Canby, in the Book-of-the-Month Club News.

* * *

Thomas Mann's first great literary success was "Buddenbrooks," published when the author was twenty-nine. It's said that his publishers balked at receiving this huge and unwieldy manuscript by an obscure young author. Cut it in half, they urged. Mann refused. Eventually they yielded and published it in two expensive volumes. At first the book seemed doomed to failure. Critics resented its size; the public resented its price. But after the first edition of a thousand was sold out, the publisher re-issued it in a cheaper volume. It began to sell, and the young author was snatched up in a whirlwind of success. Until it was burned and banned by Hitler, "Buddenbrooks" sold over a million copies in Germany alone; it has been translated into almost every modern language.

* * *

After Mann's first open attack on the Nazis, in 1936, he was deprived of German citizenship. In reply he wrote a scorching denunciation of fascism published all over the non-fascist world, "An Exchange of Letters." In 1938 Thomas Mann came to the United States, and three years ago he built a permanent home in Santa Monica, California, where he still carries on a strict routine of work, spending his mornings in creative writing, and his afternoons in correspondence. He will soon become an American citizen.

State Chamber Names Committees

Appointment of 17 well-known residents of San Mateo county to membership on the six regional committees of the Central Coast council, California State Chamber of Commerce was announced today by Frank M. Shay, regional vice-president of the State Chamber.

"In making these appointments," Shay said, "we have tried to make sure that each of the eight counties comprising the Central Coast council will be adequately represented in council deliberations. The importance of these regional committees, in our State Chamber structure, cannot be over-emphasized. Through the regional committee of our six councils the views of all sections of the state on problems of agriculture, industry, natural resources, taxation, transportation and social security are ascertained. Thus, on all problems of statewide import, the board of directors of the chamber is given the benefit of the views of each section of the State before State Chamber policy is determined."

Committee members appointed include R. I. McLellan, Colma.

Immediate friends and relatives were in attendance at the ceremony, following which the newlyweds left for a short honeymoon trip. They will make their home in Daly City.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robert Bartholomew sr., Colma, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clifford Davis, Oakland.

It Took Ninety People To Make Flag

How big is the largest "Old Glory?"

Ninety by 270 feet, according to the Philadelphia Quartermaster depot where the flag was manufactured. Requiring 70 men to raise it in the proper manner, the banner is unfurled once a year on Armistice day, by the Detroit department store to which it belongs.

The flag employed 90 people 30 days in its making, cost $2,700 and contains seven and a half miles of thread and more than 300 yards of bunting.

Here's What To Do With That Deerhide

The boys in the service responsible for smashing at Tojo from the Aleutians, the fliers even now soaring over unhappy Japan's choicest possessions, must, almost above all, have warm hands. Hands supple enough to make the delicate adjustments necessary to drop a blockbuster on a dime, fingers agile to curve about the trigger of a .50 caliber machine gun. To keep their hands warm takes a special glove of special leather. Deerhide is far and away the best insulator of them all. The buckskin that you casually toss away, or carefully store in the cellar or attic for the moths to eat, can warm the fingers of several infantry men or airmen. How about it, Mr. Deerhunter?

You don't have to go to any trouble, either. The Associated Sportsmen of California have arranged to collect these hides, and see that they reach Uncle Sam. Just dry the skin in the shade, drop it in a gunnysack, and send parcel post collect to A. Van Dyne, 1834 Eddy street, San Francisco 15.

The Associated Sportsmen have also arranged for depots where you can leave your deerhides. The Darcy Sporting Goods shop, at 200 Second street, in San Mateo, did a fine job of collecting last year, and is prepared to do it again this year. The Saltz Tanning company, in Santa Cruz, will also take your skins, as they did last year, and the Golden West Meat company, 6541 Bay street, in Emeryville welcomes all the hides it can get. The Associated Sportsmen is grateful for the assistance these depots have given in collecting skins. Other depots for skins this year are, Harold Richey, at 60 King street, in Santa Cruz, Fred Hartzell, at 4930 Folsom boulevard, in Sacramento, Art Evans, in Martinez, and the office of the Associated Sportsmen, 821 Market street, San Francisco 3.

Model Plane Contest May Become Tradition

San Francisco will inaugurate what may become another tradition when the first annual San Francisco model plane contest is held at the Golden Gate Polo grounds, Sunday, October 1.

The contest will be in two divisions—one for tow-line glider models, and the other for power models.

The autumn date of the event will give youthful enthusiasts vacation time to prepare their entries. The sport event is being sponsored by the city's junior chamber of commerce.

ATTENTION! ALL HOME CANNERS!

Before you begin your 1944 canning, Good Housekeeping Magazine advises you: use the boiling-water bath method for tomatoes and fruits, only. Can all vegetables except tomatoes by the correct use of a pressure cooker to be sure of killing botulinus germs. In the last few years, cases of botulinus food poisoning have cropped up in widely different parts of the country. Buy, borrow, share a pressure cooker—but don't can low-acid vegetables any other way. If you want further information, write Good Housekeeping Magazine, 959 Eighth Avenue, New York 19, N. Y.

NEW BLOW AT RAIL TRAVEL

ODT Broadens Roads' Rights To Cancel Reservations

WASHINGTON, June 23.—(AP) —The Office of Defense Transportation (ODT) today broadened the cancellation powers of the Nation's railroads in a move designed to help the carriers in their plans for handling military casualties.

The new ODT action provides for cancellation of reservations, space for assignments or tickets, and permits the railroads to require passengers to vacate space and accommodations when necessary to provide room for disabled military, naval and Merchant Marine personnel.

In addition, the railroads are required, when necessary, to divert transportation facilities or cancel or discontinue passenger train service and to refuse permission to passengers, other than invalid troops and their attendants, to board passenger trains.

ODT Director J. Monroe Johnson advised R...

As you may have read in the newspapers, the Office of Defense Transportation has given the railroads authority to take train space from civilian passengers at any time, to make room for wounded service men.

We sincerely hope that people planning trips not essential to the war effort will cancel their plans so that more room will be left on trains, and so make it unnecessary to take these drastic steps. We are going to take care of these wounded men first. They come first with us, and we believe they come first with you. But we and other railroads would dislike very much to cancel reservations at the last minute, or to make people already on trains give up their space.

The invasion of Europe has started, and how great the toll of wounded will be nobody knows. We have our wounded from the Pacific coming in too. And more and more cars must be taken for them from the restricted amount of equipment left after the regular military requirements are met.

We cannot guarantee that if you start a trip you will be able to get space returning. You must face that fact. If you're away from home on a pleasure trip and emergency space cancellations must be made, you may have great difficulty getting back.

For some time we have been urging people not to travel except on essential business. We haven't enjoyed doing this. For many years we have been trying to promote travel, and it "goes against the grain" to suggest that people stay off the trains. The very fact that we have issued these appeals should indicate the seriousness of the travel situation. And the new ODT order emphasizes this still more.

Why don't we provide more cars, more trains? Virtually no new cars can be built during war time. Materials are scarce, and car builders have been making guns and tanks and other war equipment. With the biggest army and navy in our history, about 63% of all Pullman sleeping cars have to be used exclusively for military service. Travel by men in uniform on furlough, or traveling on orders, plus the greatly increased volume of business travel due to the war production effort, taxes the capacity of the remaining equipment used in regular passenger train service. There are no more passenger cars available. We must get along with what we have.

We have now reached the point where there just isn't room on our trains for people who don't have to travel.

People planning a vacation or other non-essential trip may think "There's always room for one more."

Well, there isn't.

If you are planning a train trip not essential to the war effort, we strongly advise you to change your plans, now.

Better Have That Stamp By August 1

All automobile owners of Northern California who have not purchased Auto Use Tax Stamps and affixed them to the windshield of their cars by August 1, will be subject to Federal penalties, Collector of Internal Revenue Harold A. Berliner announced in San Francisco today.

Today, July 20, more than 300 Deputy Collectors will launch a drive to issue citations to owners of cars who have failed to purchase or properly affix the Auto Use Tax Stamp. The drive will embrace all Northern California.

Owners of cars receiving citations must report to the deputy issuing the tax within 10 days. Failure of the automobile owner to report that the stamp has been purchased and affixed within the alloted time places the owner of such car subject to penalty.

Collector Berliner pointed out that car owners purchasing the stamps by July 31 will not be assessed any penalty.

Automobile owners using their cars in August without the stamp affixed will be penalized. All citations issued by deputy collectors carry printed instructions.

Stamps may be obtained at all post offices and Internal Revenue offices until July 31, 1944. After this date Auto Stamps will only be on sale at Internal Revenue offices in San Francisco, Santa Rosa, Sacramento, Stockton, San Jose, Fresno and Vallejo.

POLICE - FIRE NEWS

Local police officers notified the San Francisco Police department and the San Mateo County Sheriff's office of the theft of a Packard sedan from in front of 6512 Mission street, Monday evening, July 17 at 10:40 p. m. The owner, Frank Neumann, reported to the Daly City police force that the car had been stolen.

More Names For Honor Roll

Here are more names for Daly City's Roll of Honor. Friends and relatives of local men and women in the armed forces whose names did not appear in the Independence Day tribute published by this newspaper or in subsequent issues are asked to call RAndolph 3215 to give us opportunity to publish the missing names and to place them in our service file for future reference.

Here are this week's additions: Albert M. Rosenberg, Arthur "Buzz" Wright, Louis J. Nava, Stanley Sheridan, William T. Robinson, Robert J. Milroy, Frank Rivas, and Raymond Cabano.

Eliminate Gasoline Inventory Coupons

The gasoline inventory coupon, formerly issued to gasoline dealers, has been eliminated entirely by the Office of Price Administration in its campaign to destroy black market dealings in motor fuel, it was announced, Saturday.

This step was taken to eliminate a growing black market in these coupons, which was potentially more dangerous than in any other type of coupon.

The inventory coupon previously had been issued directly to gasoline dealers by their ration boards when they registered their stations, or when they applied for replenishment of shortages due to evaporation, spillage or other legitimate causes, to make up the difference between allowed inventory and actual gasoline and coupons on hand. The place of this coupon in the rationing system has been taken by the gasoline deposit certificate.

Dealers are given through July 24 to take inventory coupons they have on hand to their local boards for exchange.

POWER FROM SHASTA DAM FLOWS OVER P.G. and E. LINES TO HOMES, FARMS and FACTORIES

Central Valley Power today flows into the homes, farms and factories of Northern and Central California —through the interconnected transmission and distribution system of Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

Under contract with the Federal Bureau of Reclamation, Central Valley Power is delivered to the Company at its Shasta Substation, twenty-five miles below Shasta Dam—is metered and paid for there. From that point the Company's system becomes the natural and most economic outlet for Central Valley Power, making it possible to put that power to immediate productive use.

We have undertaken to pay the Government a minimum of $2,700,000 a year for the output from Shasta Dam beginning January 1, 1945. Payments may exceed $3,000,000 a year—millions which the Government may apply to operating costs and to reducing the cost of water to the farmers of the Sacramento and San Joaquin Valleys.

Distribution of Central Valley Power over the Company's system follows a program submitted to the Government more than three years ago. Construction of new plants has been curtailed by us; contracts for purchased power have been re-arranged; the output of our steam operated plants has been reduced—all to make a place for Central Valley Power.

We are cooperating with the Government as we have cooperated over the years with cities, irrigation districts and other governmental agencies—cooperating to provide a market for electric power developed as an incident to water conservation and storage.

When additional Central Valley Power is developed the Company will be ready to make a market for that too and to pay for it the same fair and equitable price we are paying for the power now delivered to us at Shasta Substation.

Central Valley Power is brought to the people of Northern and Central California at the same low rates they now pay—rates that are among the lowest in the United States. It joins with the output of Pacific Gas and Electric Company's sixty-five generating plants to meet the electric needs of homes, farms and factories—to serve the country in war—and when peace comes to help build a greater California.

You get what you pay for when you buy produce at Safeway

Some of us can remember the days when a dry-goods clerk would measure ribbon by her arm's length (you got your money's worth when the clerk was long-armed!)—nowadays, ribbon is measured by the standard 36-inch yard! The modern way of measuring value in fresh fruits and vegetables is just as accurate: pricing by the 16-ounce pound —that's the Safeway method!

SUGAR FOR CANNING

1—You may secure 5 lbs. by using stamp 40 in book No. 4.

2—On the 1st application to your board for additional sugar, a maximum of 10 lbs. per person will be granted. Spare stamp No. 37 (not sugar stamp No. 37) of each person for whom application is made must be attached to applicant's Form No. R-323.

3—The 2nd application of Form No. R-323 can be made for an additional 10 lbs. per person. No spare stamp is required. However, the applicant must state in writing that the 1st 10 lbs. was actually used in the processing of canned food.

How to bake a fruit pie easily

THIS TIME of year, with delicious fresh fruits available, all of us want to make use of them in as many different ways as possible. And one good way is in pies!

Even the pastry can be made on an easy summer-time schedule. Here's a suggestion: make a double batch of your favorite pastry recipe, putting it together in the "cool of the morning." What you don't use immediately can be left dry, or moistened and wrapped in waxed paper, before placing it in the refrigerator. It's no more work than making a single batch, and the next time . . . . there's the pastry all ready to use for tarts or turnovers or other fresh fruit delicacies!

Fresh fruit pies are simple to make. Here's a recipe for example, which can be used with peaches, plums, cherries, rhubarb, berries, or a combination of fruits:

FRESH FRUIT PIE

3 to 4 cups of cleaned whole berries or sliced fresh fruit
1 to 1½ cups sugar
3 tbsps. flour
¼ tsp. salt
1 tbsp. butter or margarine
Pastry

Prepare fruit, combine dry ingredients and add, adjusting amounts of sugar and flour depending upon fruit's sweetness and juiciness; mix thoroughly. Line pie plate with pastry, and fill with fruit mixture; dot with butter or margarine. Cut slits in top crust; place over pie, crimping edges. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 10 minutes; reduce heat to moderate oven (350° F.) and continue baking 20 to 30 minutes or until done. (1 to 2 tbsps. of lemon juice will bring out the flavor in bland fruit.

Mrs. America Meets The War

Apparently the can opener will be able to retain its importance in Mrs. America's household despite wartime conditions. For the War Production Board has authorized twice as much iron and steel for the manufacture of the household type can opener.

If Mrs. America expects to wield the can opener much, she'd better get out and help the nation's canneries pack this year's crops of fruits and vegetables. Housewives and high school boys and girls are needed to fill the manpower shortage in canneries this year. It takes more canned fruits and vegetables for fighting men overseas than for those stationed in the United States. If you want to help in this vital food project, get in touch with the nearest United States Employment Service office. There you will learn where and when your help will be needed.

Mrs. America's wartime slogan of "wear it out, make it do or do without" has focused attention on ceiling prices covering repair services. For example, the dry cleaner, the cobbler, the laundry, the household appliance repair man or other service establishments cannot charge you more than they did in March, 1942. Of course, you can't remember that far back. However, if you have any questions about the charge, ask the dealer about it. He is required to show you his ceiling price lists, which are exact copies of the lists filed with their local war price and rationing boards.

And here's a peach of a price regulation for homemakers. Fresh peaches for table use are under price control for the first time. The new price ceilings mean reductions to shoppers of an average of about 25 per cent below the prices they were charged last year.

Homemakers will welcome news from the War Production Board that a limited production of electric water heaters has been approved. Further the War Production Board established a new quota for production of non-electric water heaters. Restrictions also were removed from the manufacture or fabrication of metal jackets for water heaters. It was pointed out that metal jackets will be permitted again because those of paperboard proved unsatisfactory.

Mrs. America, give your landlord a break and take care of his property. Because of wartime conditions, landlords are having difficulty obtaining materials and manpower to make necessary repairs. You'll want to get a copy of a handy booklet put out by the OPA rent control division entitled "Uncle Sam Keeps Your Rent Down—You Must Keep Your Home Up." It covers the "do's and don'ts of preventive maintenance." Ask for it at your local OPA rent office, or write the regional information division, OPA, San Francisco.

JOIN WAC

Three hundred American women residing in England have enlisted in the Women's Army Corps and are now receiving basic training prior to duty assignment in the European Theatre of Operations, the director of the Ninth Service Command WAC branch announced today.

Autumnal

FORMAL DINNER SCENES this coming season will be brightened with beaded, pastel overblouses requiring no jewelry but effectively set off with contrasting flower accompaniments, as CBS singer Dale ("Jack Carson Show") Evans illustrates. Worn with long or short skirts, the simple molded line is flattering invitation to more dressy occasions.

OPA Rolls Back Canned Meat Price

A rollback of approximately 10 per cent in the price of canned meat from wholesale through retail levels, will be effective nationwide, August 4, the Office of Price Administration announced today.

This new action establishes flat wholesale prices for several semi-sterile canned pork products, which are defined as products which require some refrigeration during the marketing process.

Typical of highest prices which will be found in San Francisco stores on some canned meat items are: canned whole hams, skinless, smoked or unsmoked—56c per pound; spiced luncheon meat, 3 pound size—44c per pound; spiced ham, 3 pound size—46c per pound; boneless dressed ham—46c per pound.

These reductions, which will follow reductions at processor and wholesale levels, follow the approximate 10 per cent reduction made over a year ago in meat prices, but which have just now been extended to canned meats.

The amount of canned meat now available for the domestic trade is dependent upon the allotment of tin plate by the War Production Board. It is estimated that the total canned meat production for 1944 will closely approximate the 1941 production. This increase in production necessitates the more effective means of price control found in the dollar and cents type of control which will be inaugurated, August 4.

Red Cross Workroom Needs More Volunteers

Whatever there's ever a surplus of it's not volunteers at the Daly City Red Cross workroom, Theatre hall, according to Mrs. J. G. Morris, chairman, for the making of surgical dressings. Stressing the need for workers, Mrs. Morris pointed out that quotas are just as high during the vacation period as they were before—since war takes no holiday. She asks every local woman who can give a few hours each week to report to the workroom as her help will be greatly appreciated.

The workroom is open every Wednesday and Friday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. and is located in Theatre hall, directly above the Daly City theatre.

Our boys must keep on fighting—we must keep on buying WAR BONDS until victory is won. Keep on BACKING THE ATTACK.

Line Symmetry

AN OPTICAL ILLUSION of broader shoulders and slimmer silhouette has been effected in the Chicago Fashion Industries' ingeniously designed spectator sport dress worn by CBS actress Beverly ("Ma Perkins") Younger. The matching inset blouse band and sleeves square off to give dashing contrast to the soft and cool navy and white striped jersey.

Local OPA Board Prepares Column For Daly City

(Editor's note: this column is prepared for The Record's readers by the local OPA board and is printed by this newspaper for the convenience of both the public and the board.)

"In a war, Food, in the right place at the right time, can be more important than bullets and bayonets."

An early peace in Europe makes a forecast for the future food supply difficult because of the unknown effect it would have on military and lend lease needs and because the relief requirements of occupied countries might well offset any decline in those needs. So keep on buying Bonds and observing and adhering to your country's ration program . . .

ANOTHER CONVERT — We have heard some tough criticism from time to time, but here's an encouraging note. This came from the San Antonio, Texas, office: "The writer this week visited a large independent retail store in our district and had a very interesting discussion with the owner. He advised that when the first of our regulations descended upon him and the extra work, made necessary by stamps and record-keeping, was forced upon him, he did not believe it was possible for him to continue to operate his store. The writer had an opportunity to meet this gentleman in June, 1943, and he was highly resentful and apparently did not want to cooperate in any manner with the rationing and price programs. However, he later determined that he must live up with them and he began to make a careful study of every piece of written material sent to him by the Office of Price Administration.

"He now says that this has been the best education that he could have received in the grocery business. He says that he has learned more about stock control and turnover and price markups in the past year than he had absorbed from fifteen years previous experience. He further states that many of the controls that he has had to instigate during this year will now be made a permanent part of his operation." . . .

Chester Bowles commenting on the Emergency Price Control Bill says: "We're genuinely pleased with the Congressional action because it enables us to continue to hold the line on prices and rents." . . .

Victory Gardens are also being grown in the South Pacific and abroad. Since last July, 18 million pounds of all kinds of vegetable seeds have been shipped to our armed forces and Allies abroad. Keep your garden watered this summer . . . Plant second crops now. . . .

Used car ceiling prices list at your local Board. All car dealers have them.

In The Jungles Of Burma

Private First Class Roy DeVincenzi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis DeVincenzi, 280 Hillcrest drive, and former student body president of Jefferson Union high school, is the lad standing just behind the "gorgeous creature" in the photo above. The show was one put on in the jungles of Burma by the boys for their own amusement. DeVincenzi, in sending the picture to his parents, revealed that the attractive blonde is another G. I. Joe.

DeVincenzi has been in India and Burma for the past year. He's with the camouflage division of the U. S. Army.

The pictures, over 125 of them, now being shown at the De Young cover nearly every phase of a nation in battle both at home and on the far flung fronts.

Ask Information On Deaf Children

The San Mateo County Parents Association of Physically Handicapped Children is requesting information that would lead to determining the need for a school for the deaf and hard of hearing in this county, according to Mrs. Clara Lane, publicity chairman.

Mrs. P. Holmelund, president of the association, requests that parents, who would be aided by the establishment of a local school for such children, contact Mrs. Lester Figone, 708 Burlingame avenue, Burlingame, who is chairman of the deaf department.

The association pointed out that such a school may be established by attendance of as few as eight children. At present, parents of deaf children must commute with them to the San Francisco schools.

A plan known as "The Good Neighbor Clinic" was passed by the association recently and will be presented at the State Legislature at the next session. The plan proposes to bring into closer harmony the various functions of the home, school, state, and community through the aid of specialized teachers and instructors.

"Due to the affiliation with The Spastic Children's Society of San Francisco we are seeking to assist the children of both groups by obtaining a contract in San Mateo county for the disbursement of toys to be made by our children under the auspices of both societies, backed by the State of California Rehabilitation Bureau," Mrs. Lane said.

Anyone interested in the program of the association is asked to contact the group by telephoning San Mateo 3-2624.

AVIATION ENGINEERS COMPLETE THEIR JOB—"Dozer Devils" of Engineer Aviation units of the Ninth Air Force came ashore on the beachhead in Normandy with the first waves of the invasion and in a matter of hours had established landing strips for American planes. Here a small group of GIs watch the first P-38 to land on a newly made field. The Engineers safely landed their bulldozers, traveling cranes and other heavy equipment and had six emergency landing fields in operation in less than a week after D-Day. They worked under fire and with tommy guns defended themselves against attacks by German snipers.

"Star Time" Opens At Curran, July 24

"Star Time," the new hilarious Paul Small musical revue with Lou Holtz, one of America's foremost humorists; Benny Fields, "America's Minstrel" and Tony and Sally DeMarco, the world's greatest dance team heading a company which will also include the Berry brothers, Shirley Dennis, Jimmy and Mildred Mulcay, the Whitson brothers, Armand Cortes and Francine Bordeaux, will be the mid-summer attraction at the Curran theatre, opening, Monday evening, July 24. There will be matinee performances Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday afternoons at 2:30, with an extra special performance every Sunday at 5:30.

"Star Time" is the fifth of the series of specialty revues which have been presented under the direction of Small. The predecessors included "Show Time," "Big Time," "Laugh Time" and "Curtain Time." The new revue is said to exceed in lavishness and pretentiousness all of the "Time" shows of the past.

In producing "Star Time" Paul Small has gone all-out in his effort to secure the greatest stars of the entertainment world to head the star-studded organization and to bring to the stage an alignment of luminaries that will rival the stars of the Milky Way.

Seats for "Star Time" may be obtained in advance by mail order. Just designate the performance you wish to attend and send a check with a self addressed envelope to the Curran theatre, San Francisco.
